APERITIVO

It. /απερι'τιβου/

1. The word apéritif (plural, apéritifs) is French, and its Italian counterpart is aperitivo (plural, aperitivi). They stem from the Latin "apierire," meaning "to open, or uncover." These attractive, often aromatic, drinks are designed to whet the appetite and prepare the palate and stomach for food and the taste sensations that come with it.

DIGESTIVE

It. /ˌdɪdʒɪstɪv/

1. The word digestif (plural, digestifs) is French for “digestive” and derived from the Latin digestivus. A digestif is both what you drink and when you drink it. Traditionally, a digestif is considered any alcoholic beverage that you would enjoy after a large dinner, and a variety of beverages fall into this category. They are often characterized by a high alcohol content with a deep, sometimes rich, flavor profile. For liqueurs, digestifs often encompass stomach-settling herbs and spices and have a bitter-sweet taste.
